After Action Report Tahoma National Cemetery March 11, 2017

This Cortège and Interment Ceremony followed the same format as prior missions to Tahoma National Cemetery. Arrived at staging area, (Lawless Harley-Davidson, Renton, WA) at 1000. Set up display of urns for participants viewing.

Escort Service arrived at 1045. Held ride briefing at 1100 and departed for TNC. Took a different route this time using back roads, encountering less traffic.

Arrived at TNC 15 minutes ahead of schedule. Directed to proceed to Shelter 4. Arrived Shelter 4 prior to PGR being set up and ready.

Ceremony started at 1150 and concluded about 1215. 8 Veterans and 1 Spouse honored.

This cortège had 76 bikes participate. Number of cages unknown. Majority of turnout was from CVMA, with Brothers In Arms, Marine Corps MC, and Green (something) also participating.

Lee Brown, John Hundahl, Jeff Smith, and Robert Patrick were present to represent MIAP and after the ceremony a business and planning meeting was held.

Typical March weather: 42 degrees and raining.

Respectfully Submitted,
Robert Patrick, Volunteer
