PVT Kenneth Goodwin Smithyman

United States Marine Corps

PVT Kenneth Goodwin Smithyman of the United States Marine Corps was transported from Schreffler Funeral Home, Kankakee IL. by MIAP State Coordinator Roland "Bogie" Boguszewski on April 18, 2017. PVT Smithyman was also accompanied by MIAP Chaplain ED Headlin.

PVT Smithyman was born on June 12, 1927 and passed away September 11 1994. His service to our country was honorable. He served from 6/18/1945 to 1946.

At 11:00 hrs a Patriot Guard flag line was in place while he was carried to the alter by the MIAP. Military Honors were given by the Abraham Lincoln National Cemetery Honor Guard. A prayer was given by the MIAP Chaplain and Past Grand Chaplain of the Royal Arch Masons of IL. Ed Hedlin, followed by a eulogy by MIAP Sate Coordinator Boguszewski. After the Honors and service PVT Smithyman was brought to columbarium #7 and interred into niche #C35, Wall 28 and a final salute was give with a flag line intact.

Respectfully Submitted,

Roland "Bogie" Boguszewski, State Coordinator & PGR RC
