Missing In America Project Texas

After Action Report

Missing in America Project along with Lighthouse Funeral Services laid to rest 10 unclaimed Veterans at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery in San Antonio Texas at 1 PM on April 8th, 2022.

The Program was overseen by CJ Rowell Texas State Coordinator and Joyce Earnest Assistant State Coordinator.

Pastor and MIAP Chaplain Michael Decker provided Chaplin duties at the cemetery.

Guest Speakers included Kim Harrington, Director of Ft. Sam Houston National, Joel Carver, Lighthouse Funeral Services & Assistant State Coordinator, and CJ Rowell, State Coordinator.

The MacArthur High School ROTC carried the cremains to the shelter for the ceremony.

Members of the Air Force, Navy and Army Honor Guard folded the flag and presented each flag to recipients.

Michelle Murray-Poczobut played taps.

The Patriot Guard Riders and other veterans' groups escorted the procession the entire 500 plus miles.

The Texas Department of Public Safety provided an escort and traffic control for the entire procession.

The Total program went off with no problems and was well attended.

Respectfully,

CJ Rowell

Texas State Coordinator
